Exquisite craftsmanship delicate details

The craftsmen carefully calculated every connecting point of the sofa and strictly controlled every detail, so that the modules gradually integrated into one piece, making it difficult to separate. They complete each process with care, pouring their time and emotions into the handmade product to present you a timeless masterpiece.

Abandoned the traditional linear design of Italian furniture, the Tulip model is characterized by its roundness, giving it a strong three-dimensional and lively appearance. The combination of various handmade details, textures and colors complement each other, adding a light and dynamic feel to the visual experience. The relaxed and compact design brings a soft, round and warm atmosphere to small and medium-sized living rooms.
